HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1894.

TWICE A WEEK $2.00 A YEAR.

OH, YES—

Certainly

There used to be plowmen in everything. The way out of the wilderness of high poles must be "blazed" by somebody. When we began the work there were no many initiates. Now an acquaintance from the rear shows that they're "a-comin'" but nothing drives the work off.

OBITUARY.

TOM.—Samuel Tice died near Longview Sunday of consumption, aged 36 years.

McMILLAN.—The wife of Wm. McGehee died of heart failure at her home near Fairview Tuesday, aged 40 years.

JENNY LIND MEMORIAL.—Recently deceased, London by the Princess Charlotte.

The magnificient tablet to Jenny Lind at Westminster Abbey, was made by the French sculptor, and in its presence of a select gathering of old friends and relatives in the great hall of the British Museum, the opening of the south transept, by Poet's engineer, became a fitting memorial to Handel, who was the most appropriately chosen by Dean Peacock, and the tablet itself, which formed Birch's last completed work. It would not have been possible to find a more appropriate group of figures than those here have been named for the honor of both the first musical artist, other than a composite, whose name is unknown.

The Louisville professionals will get a new coat of paint July 1st & 2nd. The annual meeting of the Hippodrome Driving Park and sun admission fee of 25 cents will be charged Ladies free. This will be a great deal and the probabilities are that a very large crowd will be on hand.

HERE AND THERE.

The Louisville professionals will get a new coat of paint July 1st & 2nd. The annual meeting of the Hippodrome Driving Park and sun admission fee of 25 cents will be charged Ladies free. This will be a great deal and the probabilities are that a very large crowd will be on hand.

Eng. Geo. H. Myers, Populist, and Eng. M. West, Republican, and Eng. W. C. Moore, Democrat, all court, are having a reddit rate for magistrates in the Frank Hill district.

The Democrats have out to nominate. The vote in 1892, in the four precincts of the district, was as follows: Ellis 171, Kinney 30, Pettit 20, and others 10.

Mr. Ross A. Rogers left yesterday for Cincinnati, where he will open the Model Hotel Mill. Mr. Rogers understands the business thoroughly and is an excellent and very popular gentleman. His wife associates in the management of the firm by Mr. W. R. Newcomb, formerly engaged at that place, but more recently at Evansville.

Miss Lizzie Gaither entertained about twenty couples of her friends Tuesday evening in honor of her husband, Dr. W. H. Gaither, and Dr. William of Harrodsburg.

The fair was one of the most pleasant gatherings of the season, and the attractive young hostess left nothing undone to contribute to the pleasure of her guests. Delightful refreshments were served.

Considerable talk of lynching was indulged in and the excitement has not yet subsided.

L. N. Brakman killed.

W. Johnson, an L. & N. freight brakeman was knocked from his track into south of the city Wednesday night by a train, and was killed.

It is thought that he was hit by a freight train, while he was walking across the tracks.

He was a single man, and his body was found near the tracks.
